Work by Susan Gilmore

Charleston Artist Guild Gallery, 160 East Bay St., Charleston. Oct. 1 - 31 - "Land Escapes," featuring works by Susan Gilmore. A reception will be held on Oct. 3, from 5-8pm. The exhibit is comprised of paintings in oil and cold wax that explore the beauty of Lowcountry wetlands. Ongoing - Featuring an exhibit of works by over 80 plus members of CAG who display a wealth of talent in different media including, oils, acrylics, pastels, watercolors, photography, printmaking & sculpture. The Gallery is also home for the CAG office. Hours: Daily, 11am-6pm. Contact: 843/722-2454 or at (www.charlestonartistguild.com).

Gibbes Museum of Art, 135 Meeting Street, Charleston. Through May 13, 2018 - "Mexico and the Charleston Renaissance". Through May 13, 2018 - "Magic in the Mundane: Modernist Photography from the Robert Marks Collection". Oct. 6 - Jan. 7, 2018 - "Pan American Modernism: Avant-Garde Art in Latin America and the United States". 2nd Floor Atrium, Through Mar. 24, 2018 - "Betwixt and Between". Sculptor Patrick Dougherty works with twigs and branches to create site-specific installations. Woven together and held in place by tension, Dougherty's sculptures have a whimsical quality, inspired by his childhood adventures exploring the woods of North Carolina. At the Gibbes, Dougherty has created an installation titled "Betwixt and Between" in the museum's glass atrium, creating a visual connection between the interior gallery space and the lush outdoor garden. Museum Shop - Now offering the inventory of the Tradd Street Press, reproductions of works by Elizabeth O'Neill Verner among other exhibit related art objects. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-5pm & Sun., 1-5pm; closed Mon. Admission: Yes. Contact: 843/722-2706 or at (www.gibbesmuseum.org).

Halsey Institute of Contemporary Art, The Marion and Wayland H. Cato Jr. Center for the Arts, College of Charleston School of the Arts, 161 Calhoun St., Charleston. Through Oct. 7 - "Marc Trujillo: American Purgatory" and "Riccarda de Eccher: Montagna". The paintings of Marc Trujillo portray commonplace scenes: fast food restaurants, big box store aisles, the long terminal corridors of airports, and so on. The scenes are remarkably unremarkable. In their ubiquitous nature, the paintings present an anti-place: scenes that refer not to a specific place, but to uncannily similar tableaux that unfold everyday in communities across America. While Trujillo models his paintings after specific locations, usually in the Los Angeles area, his scenes appear strikingly similar to viewers' own relationships with local commerce. On view simultaneously with Marc Trujillo's exhibition features sublime watercolors of mountain peaks also explore familiar scenes. In this case, her works evoke picturesque representations of snow-capped mountains from the Italian Alps. De Eccher's watercolors offer a subversion of our current age in which images are vastly and readily shared online, especially those that are high-resolution and digitally retouched. In a way, they correlate with Trujillo's paintings: though titled, her pictures are cropped as to present anonymous mountains that could exist on almost any continent. Oct. 20 - Dec. 7 - "SEA CHANGE," is a series of exhibitions and programs presented in collaboration with the South Carolina Aquarium to raise awareness of our enormous plastic waste problem and the detrimental effects on our planet including: "CHRIS JORDAN: MIDWAY," Jordan's photographs depict the magnitude of our consumerism and its impact on our environment and "AURORA ROBSON: THE TIDE IS HIGH". Robson creates lively and intricate sculptures from plastic debris, transforming everyday waste into aesthetic objects of beauty and reflection. On Oct. 21, at 2pm in Halsey Institute galleries, Artist Talk: Aurora Robson. On Oct. 24, at 7pm, in Sottile Theatre, Artist Talk: Chris Jordan, presents "Encountering the Albatross". Hours: Mon.-Sat., 11am-4pm and open till 7pm on Thurs. Contact: Mark Sloan at 843/953-4422 or at (www.halsey.cofc.edu).

Columbia Area

Columbia Museum of Art, Main & Hampton Streets, Columbia. Through Jan. 15, 2018 - "Henri Matisse: Jazz & Poetry on Paper," a sweeping exhibition that celebrates four of the artist's books, including his iconic Jazz portfolio. Drawn from the Bank of America art collection, the exhibition features 80 framed illustrations that together offer meditations on life, love, hardship, and utter joy. "Henri Matisse is one of the essential European artists of the modern era," says Lynn Robertson, CMA interim director. "As South Carolina's only international art museum, we are thrilled to partner with Bank of America to give our community the chance to see the artist in one of his most personal and experimental genres." Galleries 5 & 6, Ongoing - "Modern & Contemporary Art from the Collection". Celebrating some of the CMA's greatest hits, this exhibition features over 30 paintings, drawings, photographs and sculptures from the Museum's collection that have not been on view recently. It offers the visitor experiences both serious and sensual and is designed to both entertain and enlighten. Notable works included are by Jasper Johns, Howard Thomas, Sally Mann and Edward Ruscha, whose famous image of the Hollywood Hills (on view) has become a staple of the art world. Ray Taylor Fair Gallery, Ongoing - Featuring a new and permanent installation of its ancient art collection. The installation includes approximately 50 objects that introduce the major ancient civilizations from the Mediterranean and Near East. Examples of the earliest form of writing from 12th century B.C. Mesopotamia, are shown next to Egyptian scarabs and Greek painted vessels. The world of the ancient Romans is represented by 2nd century glass and bronze items and portrait sculpture. Many of these works have not been seen since the Museum moved to its location on Main Street in 1998. The collection has grown over the last several years with the donation of 12 fine Roman sculptures in 2002 from Pennsylvania collector Dr. Robert Y. Turner. Admission: Yes, but there is no admission charge on Sun. Hours: Tue.-Fri., 11am-5pm; first Fri., till 8pm; Sat., 10am-5pm & Sun., noon-5pm. McKissick Museum, University of South Carolina, USC Horseshoe, Columbia. 2nd floor, North Gallery, Through Dec. 9 - "Nostalgia for Nature: Democratizing Decorative Arts. By the late nineteenth century industrialization had transformed Western society. Dominating cities were machine-filled factories and buildings constructed in Revivalist architectural styles. Urbanization had taken hold creating a great divide between artists/designers and end products. Individuals looking to resist the Machine Age created their own artistic movements, specifically the Arts and Crafts Movement and Art Nouveau. What these styles had in common was the goal of reviving the applied arts and making them affordable to the general public. This exhibition will feature examples of decorative art glass and pottery, representing the two aforementioned art movements, from the William S. Belser and Richard D. Mandell Collections at McKissick Museum. Objects representing important individual artisans and reputable companies such as Emile Galle, René Lalique, Tiffany Studios, and Rookwood Pottery are included. Ongoing - "Diverse Voices: Discovering Community Through Traditional Arts". Dedicated to the late George D. Terry, "Diverse Voices" explores deeply-rooted traditions that help create and maintain the cultural landscape of South Carolina and the surrounding region. Each year the exhibit will focus on a specific theme or tradition. Year one of "Diverse Voices" offers a comprehensive presentation of objects from the museum collection that represent the work of celebrated NEA National Heritage Fellows and Jean Laney Harris Folk Heritage Award recipients. Ongoing - "Highlights from the Permanent Collections of McKissick Museum". Permanent - "Baruch Silver Collection," a collection of the Baruch family silver. And, "Natural Curiosity: USC and the Evolution of Scientific Inquiry into the Natural World". Hours: Mon.-Fri., 8:30am-5pm & Sat., 11am-3pm.
