Gregg Museum of Art & Design, The Historic Chancellor's Residence, NC State University, located at 1903 Hillsborough Street, Raleigh. Through Dec. 3 - "Reic Serritella: Trompe l'Oeil Ceramics". Chapel Hill artist Eric Serritella creates his ceramic sculptures as conduits to emotion through inquiry, recognition, and familiarity. Through aging and decay, Serritella's sculptures challenge the viewer with both the nature of the material and the messages within. Each organic creation is filled with metaphor, both literal and implied. Anthropomorphic elements and vessel forms link humanity as timelessly inseparable from its interactions and relationships to its natural surroundings. Each sculpture in Eric Serritella-Trompe l'Oeil Ceramics fosters awareness to affect viewers' behaviors toward the environment. Through this consciousness they can acquire new appreciations and ways of seeing. Through Nov. 12 - "Across the Threshold of India: Photographs by Martha Strawn." features photographs that make up a work of visual ecology that perceptively portrays one of India's and the world's longest and least-known religious practices—the art of sanctifying space through the creation of threshold diagrams. Objects from the Gregg Museum's permanent collection will also accompany the photographs. Many of Strawn's photographs are in the permanent collection of the Indira Gandhi National Centre for the Arts, the nation's foremost research center for Indian culture and art, and are featured in her book, "Across the Threshold of India: Art, Women, and Culture". Ongoing - One of NC State University's most historic buildings is now the permanent home of the Gregg Museum of Art & Design.
