Jerald Melberg Gallery, 625 South Sharon Amity Road, near corner of Providence Road, next to restaurant Hotel Charlotte, Charlotte. Through Nov. 7 - "Underwater Canvas," featuring a solo exhibition by Kim Keever. Keever's boldly colored, abstract images. Keever photographically captures colliding, billowing colors into a soft yet explosive choreography, creating imagery as beautiful as it is technical. Trained as an engineer, Keever uses precision and innovation to compose his photographs, utilizing a strategic dispersal of specially prepared pigments into a 200-gallon aquatic tank, creating dynamic, random movement confined within the glass walls. After photographing through the glass, Keever crops the images to achieve the desired compositions. In this process dualities emerge: the images exist in a space between chance and control, between explosiveness and grace. Nov. 14 - Jan. 2, 2021 - "Southern Artists". At the beginning she saw the process as a coping mechanism, but it soon became clear that the focused studio time began to render results in a series of new paintings that responded to the fears of the invisible virus, and yet celebrated the hopes of life and a future. Ongoing - Permanent onsite works of art including: "Cascade," a 40'
