North Carolina Museum of Art, 2110 Blue Ridge Road, Raleigh. Through Mar. 20 - "Chisel and Forge: Works by Peter Oakley and Elizabeth Brim". The exhibit presents two North Carolina artists whose sculptures provide a fresh and humorous look at everyday objects. Peter Oakley skillfully re-creates impermanent items—bars of soap, Styrofoam containers, egg cartons—out of marble, transforming the otherwise ordinary into beautiful and permanent objects. Elizabeth Brim, a prominent blacksmith, uses metalwork—traditionally considered a "man's medium"—to make a sly commentary on the gendering of materials. Her forged steel pieces represent soft and stereotypically feminine objects: frilly pillows, high-heeled shoes, tutus, and aprons. Together, these artists jovially chisel away at the assumptions plaguing their chosen materials, forging new thoughts about objects and those who create them. Through Apr. 3 - "The Energy of Youth: Depicting Childhood in the NCMA's Photography Collection". The exhibition highlights some of the most engaging photographs of children and adolescents from the NCMA's permanent collection. This collection of images demonstrates that there is no universal experience of childhood, and instead challenges viewers to consider the unique experience of each child. The exhibition celebrates the sensitivity brought to moments of innocence, reflection, play, and transition. Artists in this exhibition include Bill Bamberger, Luis Rey Velasco, Sally Mann, David Spear, Barbara Morgan, Margaret Sartor, Ralph Eugene Meatyard, Linda Foad Roberts, Erwin Olaf, and Titus Brooks Heagins. Through Jan. 31 - "Robin Rhode Video Installations". Artist Robin Rhode creates fantastic and playful digital animations that often have a darker undercurrent. In Rhode's gravity-defying videos—staged in locations that include city streets, his studio, and his family's backyard—actors interact with chalk and charcoal drawings of everyday objects (chairs, pianos, bicycles, basketballs, skateboards) as if they were real. His dynamic narratives set up a dialogue between high art and popular culture, incorporating references to graffiti, art history, and recent political and social events. Meymandi Exhibition Gallery, Through Jan. 17 - "The Worlds of M. C. Escher: Nature, Science, and Imagination". Comprising more than 130 woodcuts, lithographs, wood engravings, and mezzotints, as well as numerous drawings, watercolors, wood blocks, and lithographic stones never before exhibited, The Worlds of M. C. Escher surveys the Dutch graphic artist's entire career, from his earliest print to his final masterpiece. The exhibition highlights Escher's explorations of nature,
