Asheville Area

Asheville Area Arts Council Gallery, 207 Coxé Ave., in the Refinery Creator Space, downtown Asheville. Dec. 6 - Jan. 10, 2020 - "Through Our View We Find," a new exhibit from photographer and curator Elliot Kulwiec. A reception will be held on Dec. 6, from 5-8pm, with an artist talk at 6:30pm. This exhibition will use film photography to showcase an alternative view of Asheville, and its neighboring regions, through the lens of the locals who reside here. Asheville is depicted as a paradise in the mountains of the south, but often aspects of the city are overlooked and undiscovered. It's important not to gloss over the hidden gems and understand its not defined solely by beer, food, art, and outdoor activities. This exhibition will showcase Buncombe County photographers committed to highlighting these features so visitors will see the many different shades that this area has to offer. The exhibit will also highlight the lost art of film and the artists who dedicate their time and money to the craft. When shooting film, because of its inability to immediately view the photograph, much creativity and intention is given to the subjects. Great knowledge is needed to achieve a properly exposed photograph which gives film photography the potential to convey more depth and emotional value. Hours: Mon.-Fri., 10am-5pm. Contact: 828/258-0710 or at (<http://ashevillearts.com/>).

Work by Tom Shields

Asheville Art Museum, 2 South Pack Square at Pack Place, Asheville. Ongoing - The Asheville Art Museum, the hub for 20th- and 21st-century American art in Western North Carolina, has re-opened to the public. The $24+ million, state-of-the-art facility encompasses 54,000 square feet and adds 70 percent more Collection gallery space. For the first time in the Museum's history, it has the capacity to host major traveling exhibitions from nationally recognized museums. The expansion increases its physical space and dramatically increases its role as a community center, educational resource, economic engine for WNC, and cultural concierge for the region's residents and visitors. Opening exhibitions include: "Appalachia Now! An Interdisciplinary Survey of Contemporary Art in Southern Appalachia," is the inaugural special exhibition of the newly renovated Museum. Curated by Jason Andrew, the juried exhibition features 50 artists of diverse backgrounds from the Southern Appalachian states of North Carolina, Georgia, South Carolina, Tennessee, and Virginia. The exhibit provides a regional snapshot of the art of our time—a collective survey of contemporary Southern Appalachian culture. "Intersections in American Art," is the largest presentation ever drawn from the Museum's Collection of 5,000+ works and 4,000+ architectural drawings. It celebrates the unique qualities of art from Western North Carolina, placed within the context of art from across the United States. The intersections of regional and national art are highlighted throughout the galleries, as are three specific ways of understanding the works here: Time & Place; Experiments in Materials & Form; and Collaboration & Interdisciplinary Dialogue. Admission: Yes. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-5pm; Fri. till 8pm & Sun., 1-5pm. Contact: 828/253-3227 or at (www.ashevilleart.org).

Asheville Gallery of Art, Ltd., 82 Patton Avenue, across from Pritchard Park opposite the old location, Asheville. Dec. 1 - 31 - "Big Art, Small Canvas," features works by 23 member artists whose dynamic small works showcase the gallery's diversity of styles and mediums. A reception will be held on Dec. 6, from 5-8pm. "A small works show is a tapestry of the incredible talent of Asheville Gallery artists," says Jane Molinelli, a member for six years. "When you walk in and see the collection for the show, you immediately see what we are as a gallery and strive to be as artists. We are as diverse as our art, from abstract to realism, from oils to acrylic, and pastels to watercolor. Yet, we all work together in a business model that inherently fosters both creativity and community." Ongoing - Featuring original works of art by 31 local artists in oils, acrylics, watercolor, pastel, encaustic, and prints. Hours: Mon.-Sat., 11am-6pm, Sun., 1-4pm and first Fri. of the month till 8pm. Contact: 828/251-5796 or at (www.ashevillegallery-of-art.com).

Black Mountain College Museum + Arts Center, 120 College Street, Asheville. Through Jan. 4, 2020 - "VanDerBeek + VanDerBeek," curated by Sara VanDerBeek. The exhibition will be a multidisciplinary display focused on pioneering film and video artist and Black Mountain College alumnus Stan VanDerBeek. The show will include a selection of Stan VanDerBeek's restored films, featuring layers of dance, color, and sound – often through collaborations with other artists. Contemporary artist, Sara VanDerBeek, will curate and create new work for the exhibition connected to the BMC legacy. "VanDerBeek + VanDerBeek" is supported by a National Endowment for the Arts Art Works grant. Ongoing - An exhibition space dedicated to exploring the history and legacy of the world's most acclaimed experimental educational community, Black Mountain College. Hours: Wed.-Sat., noon-4pm or by appt. Contact: 828/350-8484 or at (www.blackmountaincollege.org).

Center for Craft, 67 Broadway, Asheville. John Cram Partner Gallery, Through Jan. 7, 2020 - "Making Meaning: Works from UNC Asheville Alumni". Making Meaning, brings together fourteen UNC Asheville alumni whose work shifts perceptions of material, method and meaning, creating new vocabularies in clay, digital media, photography, printmaking, assemblage and textiles. Through interdisciplinary practice, rooted in their experiences within a liberal arts model, these artists present expanded possibilities for innovation. Bresler Family Gallery, Through Feb. 29, 2020 - "Craft Futures 2099". To celebrate the Building a Future for Craft campaign and successful renovation of our building, the Center for Craft invited eleven local and national artists to predict what craft will represent in eighty years time. Set in 2099, this exhibition presents multiple visions of the future of craft. Some take the form of discrete objects, while others engage us through their installation. These new works address both long-standing craft concerns, such as aesthetics, community, and tradition as well as relevant social issues, including climate change, social justice, decolonization, and creating meaning in a digital age. Ongoing - Encompassing an additional 7,000 square feet of program space, including expanded galleries, event and meeting spaces, and coworking space serving the creative sector, this one-of-a-kind National Craft Innovation Hub will engage both the national craft community and western North Carolina residents, further establishing the Center for Craft as a thought-leader in what craft means today, as well as how to support emerging voices and makers. Hours: Mon.-Sun., 10am-6pm. Contact: call 828/785-1357 or at (www.centerforcraft.org).
