Asheville Area

Asheville Area Arts Council Gallery, The Grove Arcade, 1 Page Avenue, Suite 143A, downtown Asheville. Through Feb. 18 - "CMYK" (cyan-magenta-yellow-black). "CMYK" is an interactive, experiential installation that examines the relationship between color and light. Artists in this installation use color and light immersion inspired by the color printing model most commonly known as CMYK. The installation showcases mixed media from collaborative efforts of a group of young artists based in Asheville, NC, who are hoping to bring new light to the AAAC's Refinery Gallery. Each artist will bring their own media representing each color. By altering the space in which we view art, the artists aim to shift viewer perspectives and allow for the nature of light to transform the space, the art, and the viewer. There will be an artist talk on Feb. 3, during the
