Work by Samantha Spalti

Sunset River Gallery, 10283 Beach Drive SW, Calabash. Through Feb. 3 - "Selfie". According to gallery director Samantha Spalti, Sunset River Gallery announces its first show of 2024, Selfie, a juried group show featuring a range of art works inspired by the concept of "selfie." Spalti said, "We thought it would be fun and interesting to explore the psychology of selfies, so we've invited regional artists to open up and show us their true selves – at a given moment. "I think a selfie is 'in the moment,' a representation of where the artist is at that moment rather than a formal portrait. I'm finding that people are taking the idea of 'selfie' in different directions, and I love that!" The show features 25+ works in a range of media including photography, mixed media, acrylic, and more. Spalti adds, "Some are straight forward, and others are more contemplative. Feb. 10 - Mar. 16 - "Girl Power," a juried exhibit of multiple media, juried by gallery director Samantha Spalti. A reception will be held on Feb. 10, from 2-4pm. The show, which consists of North and South Carolina artists, strives to explore the multifaceted dimensions of what it means to identify as a woman in today's world. Delving into themes that include motherhood, stereotype, self-worth, strength, defiance and struggle, participating artists are presenting a broad range of interpretation. At press time, Spalti said, "Jurying for Girl Power continues for a few more days; so far, response has been wonderful. I love how artists look at the world." Ongoing - Sunset River Gallery is a gallery where art lovers and investors at almost every level can find extraordinary art. The gallery serves the regional community in the Carolinas by representing exceptional local artists and also carries original work by internationally renowned artists. Its location in Calabash, North Carolina gives the gallery an advantage over many in major metropolitan areas. New owner Larry Johnson from Bethesda, MD, has bought and sold art through major and middle-market auctions around the world for two decades. The gallery has added a new 20th Century Art installation, featuring rare and valuable fine and modern art, primarily impressionist and abstract.
