liance of often-overlooked Black artists from the South. Experience profound expressions of life, spirit, and materiality that transform American art at the International African American Museum. "Unsettled Things: Art from an African American South", was organized by the Ackland Art Museum at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill with the help of national tour sponsor Bank of America. Additional support comes from the Major Sponsor, Tim W. Hughes and Gail Coutcher-Hughes, and Contributing Sponsor, the Herzman-Fishman Charitable Fund. Ongoing - The IAAM, which sits at the site of Gadsden's Wharf - one of the nation's most prolific former slave trading ports – includes nine core exhibition galleries and a special exhibition gallery, as well as a "floating" gallery that weaves contemporary art throughout the museum. The museum will open with more than 700 artifacts dating from 17th century to contemporary objects, alongside 1000 image and media collection pieces - all of which help connect the African American journey to its roots and connections to African and African Diaspora communities and cultures. The museum also houses the Center for Family History, a world-class genealogy and ancestry resource center, which began hosting genealogy classes and workshops in 2020. Admission: Yes. In an effort to increase access and decrease obstacles to participating in arts and cultural experiences, International African American Museum (IAAM) has joined Bank of America as a new partner in the bank's Museums on Us program, which offers free general admission on the first full weekend of each month to Bank of America, Merrill and Bank of America Private Bank credit and debit cardholders, at some of the nation's greatest museums and cultural attractions, which now includes IAAM. Hours: Tue.-Sun., 10am-5pm (last entry at 4pm). Contact: 843/872-5352 or at (iaamuseum.org).

Redux Contemporary Art Center, featuring Redux Studios, 1056 King Street, Charleston. Mar. 22, from 10am-4pm - "2025 Redux Spring Art Market," featuring art, family fun, food truck, and good times. Suggested donation, $10. Mar. 21, from 5-8pm - "1st Dibs Night," enjoy bites from our dear pals Harvest Catering, and beer and wine. Be the first in Charleston to get your eyes on the show! Tickets are $35. Main Gallery, Through Mar. 15 - "Charzewski: The Sword of Damocles," a solo site specific installation. A reception will be held on Feb. 7, from 5-8pm. is a site-specific installation that examines humanity's delicate and often futile attempts to control the natural forces surrounding us. Visitors can expect to see objects found after a flood, suspended off the gallery floor, hovering in a dreamlike state, existing both within and beyond our reality. Referencing the Greek myth of Damocles, the tension of the suspension symbolizes binding and restraint controlling the objects, as much as a fear of losing and having them fall. Gallery 1056, THrough Mar. 15 - "Warrior Queens in Time," featuring works by Kris Hanson. The will focus on the feminine archetype of a Warrior Queen; embodying courage, strength, and persistence throughout time. This feminist solo exhibition will incorporate the use of found objects in the creation of three-dimensional objects. The black and white images anchor the Warrior Queens in the context of the past, present and future lives of women in society. Lightning Gallery, Through Mar. 15 - Featuring works by Kenish Harmon and Sophia Angela. Ongoing - In May, 2017, Redux relocated to 1056 King Street with 38 studios, three galleries, a larger print shop, classroom, dark room, and photo studio. Hours: Tue.-Fri., 11am-4pm, or by appt. Historical Timeline of America's First Museum: 1773 - 2023". This timeline highlights the rich history of The Charleston Museum from its beginning to the present. Selected events from the past 250 years are showcased using iconic photographs from the Museum's Archives. The forebear of The Charleston Museum was founded on January 12, 1773, by members of the Charleston Library Society, when South Carolina was still a British colony. Although the form and substance of the institution has changed over two and a half centuries, its general purpose at the time of its creation - to educate – is still central to its mission today. Throughout its history, the Museum has experienced wars, natural disasters, and most recently a worldwide pandemic, yet it has continued to thrive. Today, The Charleston Museum houses more than 2.4 million objects, and each year over 100,000 people, from around the world and from all walks of life, come here to learn. We invite you to enjoy this timeline highlighting selected events from the Museum's rich past, from its beginning to the present, with iconic images from the Museum's Archives. Ongoing - "Beyond The Ashes: The Lowcountry's New Beginings". This exhibit will cover topics such as the political and social changes that took place in the wake of the Civil War, the Jim Crow Era, the Earthquake of 1886, the Charleston Renaissance, the transformation of Charleston in the 20th century, the impact of the World Wars on the area, and the local Civil Rights struggle. Ongoing - Featuring the most extensive collection of South Carolina cultural and scientific collections in the nation, it also owns two National Historic Landmark houses, the Heyward-Washington House (1772) and the Joseph Manigault House (1803), as well as the Dill Sanctuary, a 580-acre wildlife preserve. Admission: Yes. Hours: Mon.-Sat., 9am-5pm & through the Summer months. Sun., 1-5pm. Contact: 843/722-2996 or at (www.charlestonmuseum.org)

ALTERNATE ART SPACES - Clemson Cooper Library, 4th floor, Clemson University Campus, 116 Sigma Drive, Clemson. Through Apr. 12 - "Initial Impressions: Selections from the Print Studio Art Exhibition," featuring works by Clemson undergraduate art majors, BA and art minors enrolled in the Beginning Printmaking studio. "Initial Impressions: Selections from the Print Studio" is an exhibition of work by undergraduate art majors, B.A. and art minors enrolled in the Beginning Printmaking studio. The course was taught by Mandy Ferguson, Lecturer of Art, during the spring 2024 semester. This juried exhibit showcases works utilizing two printmaking processes, monotype and relief printing. The monotype prints were an open assignment focused on the student's interests and played with the one-off aspect of the monotype print process. One relief print assignment invited the students to express aspects of their personality to create their likeness or bring other aspects of self into their final artistic expression using only black and vhite. For the second relief process, students interpreted the idea of "conflict" to create a colorful reduction woodcut. Participating artists include: Joscelynne Clark, Antonia Kiriakides, Kirsten Lanning, McCall Massey, Kailey Nelms, Maddie Pinion, Margaret Smith, Julia Shuler, Molly Tippey, Katlee Tran, Ellie Tucker, and Eliza Valero. Hours: regular library hours. Contact: call Denise Woodward-Detrich, Lee Gallery Director at 864/656-3883 or at (http:// www.clemson.edu/centers-institutes/cva/).
