Publisher's Note: Due to the COVID-19 Pandemic it is advised that you check with facilities you want to visit before you do so, to find out if they are open and what limitations they are working under. Don't just assume they are open or closed and don't forget about these people, there are many ways you can support them during these troubling times. Check out their websites.

Virtual Exhibitions

Through Apr. 15 - "The 2022 Online Watercolor or Society of North Carolina (WSNC) Member Exhibition," can be found online at (ncwatercolor.org). Winners have been selected in the Western, Central and Eastern Divisions. The judge Donna Jill Witty, AWS/NWS/WHS/TWSA Master Status, had a difficult time choosing the winners from the 115 pictures submitted. All pictures submitted are on the website and are for sale. The WSNC is a non-profit art organization founded to encourage and recognize professional and artistic excellence through competitions and by elevating standards in watermedia. WSNC strives to promote watercolor throughout the state by hosting workshops featuring nationally recognized artists, by sponsoring juried exhibitions, and by educating all through informational programs.

Work by Pauline Dove

Ongoing - Central Piedmont's new Pauline Dove Art Gallery is featuring works by its namesake at the link (<http://blogs.cpc.edu/cpc-cartgalleries/>). Central Piedmont Community College's new Pauline Dove Art Gallery, located inside the college's new Parr Center, will display a new exhibition virtually by its namesake - Pauline Dove - that will include an eclectic array of artwork featuring energetic swirling colors and highly creative compositions. The selection of works will present the full spectrum of Dove's skills, ranging from painting, silver point, prints, ceramics, and books. Dove's new exhibition honors her late sister, Selma, and celebrates life, love, sisterhood, and the joys of making art. As a former chair of the Visual Arts Program and studio art instructor at Central Piedmont, Dove's career at the college spanned three decades. During her tenure she taught a variety of visual arts classes. As a result, her legacy thrives in the college's halls to this day. After her retirement from the College in 2001, Dove worked as a freelance artist, while also participating in Continuing Education courses in visual arts at Central Piedmont.
