non-profit that organizes private support for the state's public schools. BB&T Focus Gallery, Ongoing - "Southern Traditions," will showcase the richness and diversity of the Museum's collection of furniture, ceramics, silver, basketry, sculpture and paintings by artists native to, or active in, South Carolina and its surrounding states. Among the works on view will be fine silver made by Charleston and Columbia silversmiths; a sweet grass basket by Mary Jackson (SC, born 1945); wood carvings by Edgar Alexander McKillop (NC, 1879-1950); and paintings by Charles Fraser (SC, 1782-1860), Xanthus Russell Smith (SC, 1839-1929), William Harrison Scarborough (SC, 1812-1871), William Aiken Walker (SC, 1838-1921), among others. Galleries 5 & 6, Ongoing - "Modern & Contemporary Art from the Collection". Celebrating some of the CMA's greatest hits, this exhibition features over 30 paintings, drawings, photographs and sculptures from the Museum's collection that have not been on view recently. It offers the visitor experiences both serious and sensual and is designed to both entertain and enlighten. Notable works included are by Jasper Johns, Howard Thomas, Sally Mann and Edward Ruscha, whose famous image of the Hollywood Hills (on view) has become a staple of the art world. Ray Taylor Fair Gallery, Ongoing - Featuring a new and permanent installation of its ancient art collection. The installation includes approximately 50 objects that introduce the major ancient civilizations from the Mediterranean and Near East. Examples of the earliest form of writing from 12th century B.C. Mesopotamia, are shown next to Egyptian scarabs and Greek painted vessels. The world of the ancient Romans is represented by 2nd century glass and bronze items and portrait sculpture. Many of these works have not been seen since the Museum moved to its location on Main Street in 1998. The collection has grown over the last several years with the donation of 12 fine Roman sculptures in 2002 from Pennsylvania collector Dr. Robert Y. Turner. Admission: Yes, but there is no admission charge on Sun. Hours: Tue.-Fri., 11am-5pm; first Fri., till 8pm; Sat., 10am-5pm & Sun., noon-5pm. Contact: 803/799-2810 or at (www.columbiamuseum.org).

Work by Rebecca Davenport

McKissick Museum, University of South Carolina, USC Horseshoe, Columbia. Through May 21 - "Step Right Up! Sideshows in American Culture". Featuring the work of Beaufort, SC-based visual artist Rebecca Davenport, the exhibit explores the sideshow as a cultural phenomenon during the late 19th century and continuing today. Focusing on several key themes, the exhibition will explore the dynamic nature of sideshow culture, the concept of "the other," and the public perception of showmanship and exploitation. Through June 1 - "Dawn of Freedom: The Freedmen's Town of Mitchelville". The exhibit explores the transition from slavery to freedom for slaves who escaped to Hilton Head Island following the battle at Port Royal during the Civil War. It focuses on Mitchelville, a town on the northeastern end of the island. Gen. Ormsby M. Mitchel, who oversaw the town's creation, wanted its residents to transition into freedom through economic and political autonomy. Its residents voted, had mandatory education for children, owned homes, shopped in local stores, and took the first steps toward full citizenship. Although the town no longer exists, Hilton Head Island community members are currently creating a park on the site to educate the public about the first self-governing town of freedmen in America. Ongoing - "Highlights from the Permanent Collections of McKissick Museum". Permanent - "Baruch Silver Collection," a collection of the Baruch family silver. And, "Natural Curiosity: USC and the Evolution of Scientific Inquiry into the Natural World". Hours: Mon.-Fri., 8:30am-5pm & Sat., 11am-3pm. Contact: 803/777-7251 or at (<http://artsandsciences.sc.edu/mcks/>).

SC State Museum, 301 Gervais St., Columbia. Through June 9 - "Secrets of the Maya". The exhibition combines more than 125 artifacts dating to 2000 B.C., a gallery of photos, reproductions of stone carvings, and artifacts made by the Maya people who survive today to paint a clearer portrait than has previously been seen of this historically mysterious culture. The exhibit will showcase the lives of these masters of Central America. How they lived, played, worshipped and more will be illustrated through centuries-old artifacts and newly-made items by the Maya who survive today. Admission to "Secrets of the Maya" is $15 for adults, $13 for senior citizens and $11 for ages 3-12, and includes general museum admission. South Carolina students in groups are admitted to the exhibit for $5. Through Sept. 8 - "Between the Springmaid Sheets". The controversial ad campaign helped turn a struggling Springs Mills into one of the giants of the textile industry. Through dozens of works of art the exhibition tells the story of Springs, a struggling enterprise in 1931 when dashing World War I flying ace Col. Elliott Springs inherited his father's business. The exhibit explains how the brilliant and daring Springs used racy images and innuendo-laced text to catapult his struggling cloth business to prominence following World War II. "The principle focus of the exhibition and accompanying catalogue is the collection of original maquettes (illustrations) and associated advertisements by internationally known illustrators such as James Montgomery Flagg, George Petty and Rockwell Kent," said Karen Derksen, director of Winthrop University Galleries, who first curated the exhibit for Winthrop in 2012. Through 2015 - "The Coming of the Civil War," will look at the origins of the disagreement between South Carolina and the federal government, beginning with the nullification crisis of 1832-33. The exhibit will be augmented by five more single-topic exhibits through the sesquicentennial war years (2011-2015) until the expansion space is filled. The Crescent Café, second floor mezzanine of the Museum. The house menu offers a variety of baked goods, juices, coffee, hot chocolate and tea. Lunchtime offerings include deli sandwiches and alternating daily soups, as well as grilled chicken salads and sandwiches. And let's not forget the house specialty: spectacular fudge, handmade on-site. Café Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-4pm and Sun. 1-4pm. Museum Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-5pm; Sun., 1-5pm. Admission: Yes. Greenville County Museum of Art, 420 College Street, Greenville. Through Sept. 29

- "William H. Johnson: Native Son". Born and raised in the farming town of Florence, South Carolina, William H. Johnson (1901 - 1970) left his hometown for New York at the age of 17. By working a variety of odd jobs he was able to enroll in classes at the National Academy of Design. From New York, Johnson traveled to Paris and settled in Kerteminde, Denmark before returning to the U.S. as Nazism advanced in Europe. This exhibition surveys Johnson's career from his early Paris works to his later 1940s recollections of his boyhood in South Carolina. Through Sept. 29 - "Merton Simpson: Confrontations". Powerful and poignant, the large-scale paintings of artist Merton Simpson offer a contemporaneous glimpse of the horror of the Harlem Race Riots and the Orangeburg Massacre. Erupting after days of escalating racial tensions near the campus of South Carolina State University, the latter event set the stage for Ohio's Kent State shootings but was largely ignored by both regional and national press. Ongoing - "Andrew Wyeth: The Greenville Collection". The exhibition that brings Greenville national and international visitors has expanded to include eleven new paintings, including two temperas. Come see why the artist himself called it "the finest collection of his watercolors" at any museum. Admission: Free. Hours: Wed.-Sat., 10am-6pm and Sun., 1-5pm.
