

continued from Page 25 / back to Page 25

healing will be sent his way - and mom's - as they face this together."

Angela Lubinecky, Matthews, NC

"When you look at my art you will find glimpses into where life has taken me. I was raised in a multicultural expatriate community in East Africa and was exposed to a variety of influences. My work is a reflection of my family's optimism, sense of adventure, and an embrace of everything life and this world has to offer."

Bill Wallace, Wake Forest, NC

"I've never shown in Fayetteville before and I'm looking forward to the opportunity. Arts Councils are really good at exposing the public to different artwork."

Joanna Sokolowska, Cary, NC

"The human being, with his dual nature - sensual and spiritual, is my biggest inspiration and focus. My style combines elements of realism with expressive, emotional quest for power of expression. My works are evidence of a search for the means of expression that split the self into a dilemma of human experience."

Stacy-Ann Topjian Searle, Carrboro, NC

"The 10-10-10 Exhibit is my first opportunity to share my work here in North Carolina. Being able to curate 10 feet of wall space, allows me to exhibit a good representation of my pen and ink work. I am grateful for this opportunity."

Debi Drew, Hillsboro, NC

"I am delighted to have the opportunity to share my artwork with the Fayetteville community. I consider it an honor to be selected with the other talented artists as we celebrate our unique creativity. I pray my biblical-centered art touches souls!"

CJ Howard, Wilmington, NC

"It is such a joy to connect with the Fayetteville community and get to know

new artists."

CIMAGE, Greensboro, NC

"I am an entrepreneur, self-taught artist who has been working with photography since I was 15 years old. I blend my Photoshop skills with photography, bringing about a perfect marriage of my two passions and create a unique wall art."

The Arts Council of Fayetteville | Cumberland County is a tax-exempt 501(c)(3) organization based in Fayetteville, NC, that supports individual creativity, cultural preservation, economic development, and lifelong learning through the ARTS. As a primary steward of public and private funding for arts, cultural, and historical activities in the Cape Fear Region, all affiliated programs of the Arts Council exemplify our 5 core values: Excellence, Accountability, Transparency, Collaborations, and Innovation.

Since 1973, the Arts Council has served as a link between artists, arts and cultural organizations, and the greater community by administering programs in partnership with a variety of local agencies to help advance community and economic growth, stimulate tourism, reinforce child education through the ARTS, and enhance the cultural identity of the arts and entertainment district. Visit (theartscouncil.com).

Grants, programs, and services of the Arts Council are funded in part by contributions from community partners, and through grants from the City of Fayetteville, Cumberland County, and the NC Arts Council, a division of the Department of Natural & Cultural Resources. ncarts.org

For further information check our NC Institutional Gallery listings or visit (WeAreTheArts.com/tenexhibit).

Craven Arts Council & Gallery in New Bern, NC, Offers A Group Exhibition

The Craven Arts Council & Gallery in New Bern, NC, will present ROY G BIV, on view in the Main Gallery, at the Bank of the Arts, from May 1 - 31, 2022, and

This exhibition features the work of local artists who were challenged to create unique pieces using a limited color palette and identical 12" x 12" cradled board. Craven Arts Council & Gallery will host an opening reception for the exhibition during the downtown New Bern ArtWalk, Friday, May 13, from 5pm-8pm.

ROY G BIV is an exhibition showcasing the use of color. Participating artists received a 12" x 12" cradled board and randomly drew a color and were tasked with creating a unique piece featuring the color selected. Each panel in the Main Gallery at the Bank of the Arts will be filled with works featuring one color per panel, creating a spectrum that moves across the gallery. Colors selected for the exhibition were red, orange, yellow, green, blue, violet(purple), white and black. All works will be judged for a chance to win one of seven prizes with awards announced during the ArtWalk reception.

Work by Bois Vert Patricia Pasteur

The popularity of this exhibition surprised the Craven Arts Council and prompted the number of allowed entries to increase an additional 60 entries, bringing the total number of pieces to 144.

For further information check our NC Institutional Gallery listings, call the Council at 252/638-2577 or visit (www.cravenarts.org).

Craven Arts Council & Gallery in New Bern, NC, Offers Works by Local Veterans

The Craven Arts Council & Gallery in New Bern, NC, will present The Warrior and the Artist Exhibition featuring the artwork of local veterans, on view in the Director's Gallery at the Bank of the Arts, from May 1 - 31, 2022. A reception will be held on May 13, from 5-8pm, during the New Bern ArtWalk.

This exhibition features various multimedia works created by local veterans. The VFW Post 2514 and Auxiliary in partnership with Jacksonville Veteran Administration Center organized an exhibition consisting of work created by veterans as an outlet to express their experiences in war and feelings through art.

The purpose of the exhibition is to reach out to the over 17,000 veterans living in Craven County and adjoining communities to help heal hidden scars caused by war and celebrate freedom. This effort is an extension of combat veterans counseling offered by the Jacksonville VA Center to assist combat veterans and families readjust to civilian life. The exhibit will be judged by Thomas McCabe and Laura Gammons. This exhibition is sponsored by the Vietnam Veterans of America, Chapter 886.

For further information check our NC Institutional Gallery listings, call the Council at 252/638-2577 or visit (www.cravenarts.org).

2022 Spring Art Show & Sale
1st Place Winner
LORAIN SCALAMONI (detail)
"Between Two Worlds"

Membership is open to artists & art lovers alike

The Premier
Visual Arts Organization
of the Cape Fear Coast

Join the Fun
Get Involved!

Want to meet other artists -
just like you?
Attend a monthly meeting
and join.
See Calendar for more info:
wilmingtonart.org.

- * Socials, Field Trips, Paint-Outs
- * Monthly Member Meetings
- * Exhibit Opportunities & Member Discounts
- * Workshops Led by Award-Winning Instructors
- * Lectures and Demonstrations and more!

Join Today & Support Local Art
www.wilmingtonart.org

Roberta Rotunda, Remembering, acrylic, 36" x 48"

Renewal
Group Show
April 7 - May 14

Sunset River Marketplace
Calabash, NC
910.575.5999
SunsetRiverMarketplace.com

Sunset River Marketplace in Calabash, NC, Offers Group Exhibit

Sunset River Marketplace in Calabash, NC, is presenting Renewal, a group show in celebration of the rains that bring Spring Fever, new growth, and outdoor activities, on view through May 14, 2022.

The group exhibition includes oil paintings, acrylics, watercolors, and photography. Subject matter ranges from Paris in the rain to children in yellow rain slickers, local wildlife, bicycling, garden bouquets and more. Umbrellas abound!

Featured artists include: Lee Mims (oils), Donn McCrary (acrylics), Brenda Riggins (watercolor and acrylics), Vicki Neilon (acrylics), Judi Moore (acrylics), Louis Aliotta (photography), Linda Karaskevics (watercolor), Roseann Bellinger (acrylics), Gary Baird (photography), Janet Sessoms (oil), Ortrud Tyler (acrylics), Roberta Rotunda (acrylics), Marcus McClanahan (acrylics) and Hank Pulkowski (watercolor).

Work by Roberta Rotunda

Sunset River Marketplace is celebrating its 20th Anniversary through 2022. Since opening its doors in 2002, Sunset River Marketplace has evolved into Coastal Carolina's go-to place for the hottest new contemporary art, exquisite artisan-

continued on Page 31