Asheville Art Museum, 2 South Pack Square at Pack Place, Asheville. Explore Asheville Exhibition Hall, Through July 28 - "Flora Symbolica: The Art of Flowers," an exhibition exploring the symbolism of flowers in American art of the 20th and 21st centuries. The exhibition is inspired by three ten-foot-tall murals by renowned photographer and artist Edward Steichen, complemented by a selection of his photographs from the Carl Sandburg Home and works from the Museum's Collection as well as regional artists. Before becoming one of the most influential photographers of the 20th century, Steichen trained as a painter, shaping his approach to composition, light, and symbolism. His lifelong fascination with flowers is evident throughout his work, where he often incorporated botanical imagery to dramatize the personalities of his subjects. "Flora Symbolica" highlights the ways flowers have served as both a personal and cultural emblem in American art and their role in ornamentation and design. Appleby Foundation Exhibition Hall, Through May 5 - "Asheville Strong: Celebrating Art and Community After Hurricane Helene," will showcase work from artists who live and work in the Helene-affected Appalachia region. This special, non-juried exhibition will celebrate the strength and diversity of our regional arts community acknowledging the significant impact of Hurricane Helene on the lives of artists across Southern Appalachia. Asheville Strong features a variety of mediums, including painting, drawing, printmaking, sculpture, ceramics, and photography. Each
