

FLAT OUT UNDER PRESSURE

THROUGH JULY 31

An exhibit created in 24 hours

Each summer the Metropolitan Arts Council hosts Flat Out Under Pressure, a 24-hour art-making event. This year due to COVID-19 the event went fully virtual. Follow the link below to see the eight winners whose work will be reproduced on the eight downtown recycling bins next year as well as the full exhibit featuring over 100 local artists.

VIEW NOW