Work by Ellie Snow

Hillsborough Gallery of Arts, 121 N. Churton St., Suite 1-D, Hillsborough. Through July 24 - "Color and Form," featuring works by Nell Chandler, Ellie Reinhold, and Evelyn Ward. "When we throw around titles for our featured artists' shows we try to suggest titles all three of us are familiar with and challenged by" says jeweler Nell Chandler. "I would say that I'm staying within my recent purview of little structures" explains painter Ellie Reinhold, "but running with the title ("Color and Form") in trying to shake it up a little bit with both a different approach to color and new venues for it. We'll see if I manage it!" "Color, form, function. Not necessarily in that order," says potter Evelyn Ward. "Balancing the shape of a pot (or its form), how it will look on the surface and how it will be used are basically the job requirements of being a potter. The great thing is that this is an endless pursuit, an endless endeavor." July 23 - Aug. 25 - "Natural Patterns: Flora and Fauna," featuring works by Ellie Snow and Lynn Wartski. A reception will be held on July 26, from 6-9pm. For painter Ellie Snow, painting is an escape, a window into a fairy tale world where she can ponder the beauty and complexity of life, and the stories that repeat themselves, like patterns, through time. Snow's artworks begin with nature photographs taken while exploring. "At home, I collage, edit, and make double exposures to create a scene that is playful and mysterious. I think of each painting as an introduction to a story about life's fits and starts, imperfection, darkness, light, magic, weirdness, and beauty." Last year artist Lynn Wartski started to treat the surface of her anthropomorphic sculptures as an additional canvas. She created animal figures that had bold flowers, nautical "tattoos", and wintery motifs on them. Liking the results, Wartski decided to carry that idea into the sculptures for this year's show - but with a twist. "Instead of just thematic or decorative elements, I began with creatures that had distinctive natural patterns, known in the fashion world as "animal prints." Ongoing - HGA is owned by 21 local artists featuring painting, sculpture, photography, glass art, jewelry, wood, pottery, textiles & fiber art.
