Southeastern Center for Contemporary Art, 750 Marguerite Drive, Winston-Salem. Through Aug. 16 - "Alternative Modernisms".

The exhibit captures the evolving relationship between the historical and contemporary image through diverse cultural perspectives of five contemporary artists: Harun Farocki, Leslie Hewitt, Pedro Lasch, Jumana Manna, and Jeff Whetstone. Each artist stages a dialogue with historical and vernacular culture, revisiting representational traditions born in painting, at one remove, through the lens of photography and film. Each finds new spaces in the genres of still life, portrait, and landscape to intervene in how specific histories can be told. They work from the archive, the studio, the museum and the outdoors. They investigate personal histories of place, from Rural Appalachia to Palestine. Various approaches to narration emerge from time-based media driven by the desire to refute a monolithic sense of history and to speak from the contemporary vantage. Through Oct. 4 - "Devin Leonardi: Figure at Dusk," featuring the first solo museum exhibition of the late Devin Leonardi. The exhibition displays 34 of the artist's works, including watercolors and small oil paintings, spanning his first cycle of work in 2005 to his last works made in 2014. Leonardi's imagery richly depicts the twilight of the American landscape, the mythology of westward expansion, and the dialectic between modern and contemporary image, as seen in his paintings' adaptations of photographic source material. Harkening back to an earlier period of American history and following its folkways, Leonardi constructed Americana paintings of pioneers, journeymen, and classical figures as well as stunning landscapes of plains, mountains and newly forming cities using vintage photographs from the 1850s to 1880s. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-5pm, Thur. till 8pm; Sun., 1-5 pm, and closed Mon. & state holidays. Admission is free. Contact: 336/725-1904 or at (www.secca.org).
