Works by Arianna Bara

Hillsborough Gallery of Arts, 121 N. Churton St., Suite 1-D, Hillsborough. Through Aug. 25 - "Natural Patterns: Flora and Fauna," featuring works by Ellie Snow and Lynn Wartski. For painter Ellie Snow, painting is an escape, a window into a fairy tale world where she can ponder the beauty and complexity of life, and the stories that repeat themselves, like patterns, through time. Snow's artworks begin with nature photographs taken while exploring. "At home, I collage, edit, and make double exposures to create a scene that is playful and mysterious. I think of each painting as an introduction to a story about life's fits and starts, imperfection, darkness, light, magic, weirdness, and beauty." Last year artist Lynn Wartski started to treat the surface of her anthropomorphic sculptures as an additional canvas. She created animal figures that had bold flowers, nautical "tattoos", and wintery motifs on them. Liking the results, Wartski decided to carry that idea into the sculptures for this year's show - but with a twist. "Instead of just thematic or decorative elements, I began with creatures that had distinctive natural patterns, known in the fashion world as "animal prints." Through Aug. 27 - Sept. 22 - "Intertwined," featuring jewelry by Arianna Bara, nature and figurative art by Ryann Carey, painted gourd sculptures by Martha Danek. A reception will be held on Aug. 30, from 6-9pm. Jeweler Arianna Bara describes her interpretation of the show's title Intertwined as the relationships between the stones, the metal and her own creative processes. In a literal way, Martha Danek's artistic medium, gourds, grow on vines that twine around any stationary object near them. Her gourd pieces feature trees, flowers, birds, fish, and many other life forms that have inspired her work for more than thirty years. Photography was painter Ryann Carey's first love as an artistic medium. Her love of observation provides the inspiration to capture moments, first on camera, and then in her paintings. Ongoing - HGA is owned by 21 local artists featuring painting, sculpture, photography, glass art, jewelry, wood, pottery, textiles & fiber art.
